

PennState
College of the Liberal Arts

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC POLICY

publicpolicy.psu.edu

@PSUPublicPolicy

Master of Public Policy

WHO SHOULD APPLY FOR THE MPP?

The MPP degree provides professional training for those seeking careers in the design, evaluation, and advocacy of public policies. The program is open to students from any major with a variety of policy interests. Graduates pursue careers at think tanks, nonprofits, as analysts, consultants, and elected officials in Federal, state, and local government.

CONCENTRATION AREAS

Data/Science Analytics

Criminal Justice

Environmental Policy

Health Policy

Labor and Employment Relations

Social Policy

Information Technology

International Public Policy

With the flexibility to design a personalized specialization to meet your career goals

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

B.A. degree or equivalent

3.0 minimum GPA

Two letters of recommendation

1500-word personal statement

TOEFL/IELTS scores (international applicants)

Contact Us:

publicpolicy@psu.edu publicpolicy.psu.edu